

I support the broadcast of XM Instant Traffic & Weather. I use it as a safety tool in commuting to and from work. How can the FCC be against safety on the roads? The local stations could care less, all they are interested in is profit, not servicing the needs of the community.